

Young Roots Project Coordinator - Brent

SALARY: £30,478

Reports to: Service Manager

Direct reports: Volunteers

Budget Responsibilities: Oversight of the activity budget for the Advice and Support Hub, and other youth activities

35 hours per week (with regular evening work required)

MAIN PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF THE JOB

The Young Roots Project Coordinator in Brent is responsible for the development, oversight, planning and co-facilitation of the activities we run for young refugees and asylum seekers. You will be focused on ensuring our activities achieve our outcomes, and identify areas for change and development under the direction of the Service Manager. An excellent communicator and skilled at working with partners, you will be key in the implementation and running of our new weekly Advice and Support Hub run alongside our established football project. You will also oversee and deliver our holiday activities, youth club, English Language Peer Support project, and other projects as they develop working closely with the Project Worker.

You will prioritise the participation of young people in all activities, ensuring excellent safeguarding by following our policy and protocols, and ensure that we collect excellent data for monitoring, evaluation and to aid our future planning. You will also assist with staff and volunteer recruitment and reporting to our funding partners.

Job Description

1. To be responsible for co-ordinating and delivering our programme of youth activities in Brent ensuring you are focused on achieving our outcomes and impact for young refugees and asylum seekers. Our current activities are:
 - The new weekly Advice and Support Hub and football project working with external partners, our Caseworkers and volunteers.
